
Content

Title :	Reference Guidelines for Decision Making on Public Protective Actions in a Nuclear Accident Ch
Date :	2018.05.31
Legislative :	Original 3 Articles promulgated by Atomic Energy Council, Executive Yuan on May 31, 2018 under Decree No. Huieh-Chi-Tze-1070006718
Content :	Article 1 The reference guidelines are formulated for National Nuclear Emergency Response Center to make comprehensive decision on public protective and response action reference when a nuclear accident happens. Article 2 The Operational Intervention Levels (OILs) used in the reference guidelines refers to the operational criteria that allow decision-makers to promptly implement protective actions on the basis of radiation survey during the occurrence of a nuclear accident and radioactive material released. Article 3 The recommendations of the public protection actions in the Emergency Planning Zone (EPZ) are listed in Appendix 1; it would be adopted according to the classification of nuclear accident. The recommendations of the public protective action in the affected area are listed in Appendix 2; it would be adopted based on the radiation survey and dose evaluation.
Attachments :	Appendix 1.pdf Appendix 2.pdf

Data Source : Nuclear Safety Commission Laws and Regulations Retrieving System